

CDPHE via CityView: Since the site was previously used as a gravel operation, it should be evaluated for releases of petroleum and other regulated materials prior to construction of the site or additional site development. The facility should develop and implement a materials management plan for the disposition of any waste soils generated from the site. Additional information on materials management plans can be obtained through the Hazardous Materials and Waste Management Division's website.